GOBS updates:

- GOBS is scheduled to be held during the week of April 9th, to coincide with National Library Week
- FOESL does not need any budget for this free event (no snacks this year)
- MS location planned and confirmed
- Carol met with Kara Tambellini, US Service Learning coordinator, to plan US involvement, esp. moving books into MS for event
- Carol and Elizabeth visited MS library last month to assess the space and meet with Patrick
- Patrick thinks (per Carol) we can make tech room in MS Library available early on to store books in until we can set them up Tuesday
- Will need to contact Robbi Garvin via form (Elizabeth will take on this task) to plan and request number of tables needed
- Will try to coordinate parent volunteers and buddies re: timing for the event to help kids choose books
- Will get in touch with Extension to invite them to come after school on Wed like last year
- signup.com all set up to facilitate volunteer tracking
- Will plan to borrow hand trucks from school store, Elizabeth Hutchins, and Kristen Crowell
- Children's books will primarily go to Children's Book Bank again
- Lara reports that Alma (LS library assistant) would love to take some extra books back to her community library in Philippines; we encouraged Lara to invite Alma to come any time after classroom visits (i.e. after school Wed) to collect books
- Likely that Becca, Kristen, and Julie can transport books after event; may need one other person for additional location, TBA
